ANSWER KEY

QP CODE:25901921

MAHATMA GANDHI UNIVERSITY, KOTTAYAM

MGU-UGP (Honours)/MGU-BBA (Honours)/MGU-BCA (Honours) Special Examinations, July 2026 (for 2024 Admission Regular Examinations, October 2025

Third SEMESTER

Discipline Specific Core Course (DSC) - MG3DSCPOL203 - HUMAN RIGHTS IN INDIA (2024 ADMISSION ONWARDS)

PART A

1. Solidarity rights/Collective rights-Right to development-Right to peace-Right to a healthy environment-Right to self-determination-Right to humanitarian assistance-Right to share in the common heritage of mankind.

2. Protection and promotion of human rights.

3. Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Queer/Questioning, and others.

4. Refugees cross international borders; IDPs remain within their own country.

5. Human rights belong equally to every person everywhere.

6. Liberal human rights protect individual freedom, equality and the rule of law in a democratic society.

7. Article 21.

8. Ministry of Health and Family Welfare.

9. Custodial torture.

10.To prevent unlawful and terrorist activities.

PART B

11.Gandhi's philosophy inspired global human rights movements- through non-violence, truth, and civil disobedience-his ideas influenced leaders like Martin Luther King Jr. and Nelson Mandela in fighting injustice peacefully - non-violence - civil disobedience - human dignity.

12.RTI is a tool for good governance because it promotes transparency, accountability, and citizen participation-enables people to access public information, reducing corruption and improving administrative efficiency - transparency - accountability - anti-corruption.

13.Amnesty International exposes human rights violations through research, campaigns, and reports-influences global opinion, pressures governments, and supports victims by advocating justice and accountability - awareness campaigns - independent investigations - global advocacy.

14.Government prevents organized violence through law enforcement, intelligence gathering, and legal measures-responds by protecting victims, prosecuting offenders, providing relief, and restoring peace and public confidence - security measures - relief and rehabilitation - rule of law.

15.Cultural and educational rights protect minorities by preserving their language, religion, and educational institutions-challenges include discrimination, unequal opportunities, and cultural assimilation, requiring stronger constitutional safeguards - identity protection - equal education - constitutional safeguards

16.Individual liberty is central to liberal human rights- because it guarantees freedom of thought, expression and personal choice- limits state interference while protecting individual dignity and democratic participation.- freedom - autonomy – equality.

17.Custodial killing undermines the rule of law by violating the right to life and due process-weakens public trust- encourages abuse of power and denies justice through unlawful actions - human rights violation - abuse of authority - loss of public trust.

18.National Commission for Protection of Child Rights- consists of a chairperson and six members-safeguards child rights- investigates complaints- monitors laws and recommends measures for child welfare - child protection - complaint inquiry - policy recommendations.

19.Social media strengthened the #MeToo movement by enabling survivors to share experiences- raise awareness and demand accountability-mobilized global support while encouraging discussions on workplace safety and gender justice - public awareness - survivor solidarity - social accountability.

20.Right to Education promotes social equality- by ensuring free and compulsory education for children-reduces social disparities-improves opportunities and empowers disadvantaged groups through equal access to learning - equal opportunity - social inclusion – empowerment.

PART C

21.Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR) provides a common global standard for protecting human rights-encourages nations to adopt human rights laws-cooperate through international organizations and promote equality, justice, and peace- guides treaties and national constitutions while strengthening international accountability for human rights violations- universal standards - international cooperation - human dignity

22.Judicial review is the power of the judiciary to examine the constitutional validity of laws and executive actions- basis lies in Articles 13, 32, 131–136, 226, and 227 of the Indian Constitution-upholds the Constitution- protects Fundamental Rights and ensures the rule of law by preventing arbitrary use of power- - constitutional supremacy - protection of rights - checks and balances.

23.Despite constitutional safeguards, vulnerable groups continue to face discrimination and inequality-women experience gender violence and unequal opportunities- children face child labour and abuse- transgender persons encounter social exclusion and employment discrimination-effective implementation of laws- awareness and inclusive policies are essential for ensuring equality and dignity - social discrimination - legal protection - inclusive development.

24.Aadhaar project raised constitutional concerns- regarding the Right to Privacy under Article 21 due to the collection and storage of biometric and personal data- Supreme Court recognized privacy as a Fundamental Right while permitting Aadhaar with safeguards against misuse, ensuring proportionality, data protection, and limited mandatory use - right to privacy - data protection - constitutional safeguards.