26900220 Reg.No : .....

Name : .....

MAHATMA GANDHI UNIVERSITY, KOTTAYAM

MGU-UGP (Honours)/ MGU-BBA (Honours)/ MGU-BCA (Honours)

Regular EXAMINATION October 2026

Fifth SEMESTER

Discipline Specific Elective (DSE) - MG5DSEENGA00 - CONFLICT ZONE LITERATURES: MEMORY, IDENTITY, AND RESISTANCE

(2024 ADMISSION ONWARDS)

Duration: 2 Hours Maximum Marks: 70

Remember(K), Understand(U), Apply(A), Analyse(An), Evaluate(E), Create(C), Skill(S), Interest(I) and Appreciation(Ap)

Students should attempt at least one question from each course outcome to enhance their overall outcome attainability.

Part A

MCQ

Answer all questions

Each question carries 1 marks

1. Ralf Dahrendorf proposes that social conflicts are primarily conceived on: [U] / [CO1]

   a). Ownership of physical property | b). Power dynamics between order-givers and order-takers | c). Shared cultural values and consensus | d). Differences in biological and psychological traits

2. According to the Debamitra Kar, the ongoing, low-intensity fight between the State and non-State groups becomes: [U] / [CO1]

   a). A permanent status of the society | b). A temporary performance | c). A solution to problems | d). A one-time event

3. In Mbembe's view, modern sovereign power constructs a dynamic where the killing of the 'Other' is justified as what? [U] / [CO2]

a). An unfortunate economic externality	b). A path to absolute global peace	c). An elimination of an absolute threat to the state's survival	d). A cultural misunderstanding among diverse populations

4. In late-modern necropolitics, warfare is no longer characterized by a simple clash between regular state armies, but rather by what? [K] / [CO2]

a). AI-driven algorithms managing cyber diplomacy	b). Strict adherence to the Geneva Convention rules	c). The proliferation of private military forces, militias, and warlords	d). A total shift to trade-only tariff restrictions

5. What is the defining characteristic of the 'state of exception' in necropolitics? [U] / [CO2]

a). The temporary expansion of constitutional voting rights	b). The suspension of economic taxes during hyperinflation	c). The permanent suspension of law to exercise state violence legally	d). The reliance on international courts to settle regional border disputes

6. In the father's final prayer to the sea, what stark realization does he accept? [K] / [CO3]

a). That the boat is mechanically sound enough to withstand any storm.	b). That the shores on the other side will instantly grant them asylum and jobs	c). That his immense parental love is entirely powerless against the indifferent forces of nature.	d). That he has forgotten the map needed to steer the vessel across the Mediterranean.

7. What does the "hole in the city" primarily symbolize? [U] / [CO3]

a). Real estate collapse	b). A sci-fi dystopia	c). Collective psychological trauma and the absence left by the lost	d). Structural damage to the subway lines

8. To whom is the narrative "Sea prayer" primarily addressed? [U] / [CO3]

a). The narrator's wife	b). The narrator's son, Marwan	c). The narrator's deceased father	d). An unknown traveler

9. What does the girl in the poem 'A Century Later' carry that becomes a symbol of resistance and future hope? [U] / [CO4]

a). A school book	b). A weapon for self-defense	c). A traditional veil	d). A piece of traditional embroidery

10. In the poem " We Lived Happily During the War", how is the citizens' attempt to protest described? [K] / [CO4]

a). As a massive uprising in the capital	b). As a small protest which changed nothing.	c). As a legal petition signed by millions	d). As a violent riot against soldiers

[1x10 = 10]

Part B

Short Essay Questions

Answer any 6 questions

Each question carries 5 marks

11. How does the civilian population become the battlefield in the state vs. non-state asymmetric warfare? [K] / [CO1]

12. How does the ‘homecoming’ become a redeployment in the story? [U] / [CO2]

13. "Rifle was not merely a weapon; it was an extension of his body". Explain with reference to "Redeployment" [K] / [CO2]

14. What is the significance of the kite and tail in the poem "If I must die"? [U] / [CO2]

15. Why did the narrator not believe Mags in "There's a hole in the city" ? [K] / [CO3]

16. What does the "bullet hole" symbolize in the context of the poem, "Telemachus"? [K] / [CO3]

17. Mrs. Pirelli did not come home from the hospital, but went to live with her son in Connecticut. Who is being described here from the story “There's a hole in the city"? [U] / [CO3]

18. What specific words or insults do the refugees encounter from people in the countries where they seek asylum according to the speaker in the poem "Home"? [U] / [CO4]

19. "Someone must be stretched out blade of grass in his mouth gazing at the clouds" Analyze the importance of this line in the poem "The End and the Beginning" [An] / [CO4]

[5x6 = 30]

Part C

Essay

Answer any 2 questions

Each question carries 15 marks

20. "Modern conflict is no longer defined by strict territorial boundaries or clear military endpoints, but by permanent structural inequalities and ideological struggles." Explain. [K] / [CO1]

21. War Machines and Heteronomy. Discuss with reference to the essay "Necropolitics". [K] / [CO2]

22. Childhood in conflict zones-constant state of physical pain and fear. How does the father try to create memories for his son in "Sea prayer"? [K] / [CO3]

23. Discuss the role of memory and forgetting in "The End and the Beginning." [U] / [CO4]

[15x2 = 30]