QP CODE: …….. Reg No: ……

Name: …….

BSM (Honours) DEGREE EXAMINATION, November 2026 Fifth SEMESTER
BACHELOR OF SPORTS MANAGEMENT (BSM)
SEC: MG5SECSMG300

SCOUTING FOR SPORTS
2024 ADMISSION ONWARDS

Time: 1 Hour Total Marks: 35

CO No	Course Outcomes
1	Define the key concepts, principles, and methodologies involved in sports scouting.
2	Explain the historical evolution and significance of scouting in different sports.
3	Analyze and assess the physical, technical, and tactical aspects of athletes in various sports.
4	Identify and understand the key performance indicators specific to different positions or roles.
5	Demonstrate proficiency in collecting, organizing, and analyzing relevant data for scouting purposes.
6	Differentiate and evaluate the specific requirements and attributes for different positions within a given sport.
7	Articulate scouting reports clearly and concisely, incorporating relevant data and observations.
8	Develop a systematic approach to talent identification and recruitment.

	Part A (Multiple Choice Questions) Answer All Questions (Marks 1 each)			Module & Unit
1.	What is the primary purpose of sports scouting? a) Event organization b) Athlete identification and evaluation c) Facility management d) Ticket management	CO1	K	1.1
2.	Which method uses recorded performance to evaluate an athlete? a) Video analysis b) Interview c) Reference checking d) Live scouting	CO1	U	1.2
3.	Which term refers to talent involving several dimensions of athletic ability? a) One-dimensional talent	CO2	U	2.1

	b) Multidimensional talent c) One-sport talent d) Talent in progress
4.	Which physical attribute is associated with rapid changes in direction? a) Flexibility b) Agility c) Size d) Aerobic fitness	CO3	U	2.2
5.	Which quality helps an athlete continue despite difficulties? a) Persistence b) Size c) Speed d) Flexibility	CO4	K	2.3
6.	Which of the following is an intangible quality considered in sports scouting? a) Motivation b) Height c) Strength d) Speed	CO5	K	2.4
7.	Which of the following can negatively affect athlete development? a) Burnout b) Talent identification c) Performance assessment d) Scouting report	CO6	K	3.3
8.	Which technology can help a scout study performance patterns? a) Video analysis b) Ticketing software c) Venue software d) Accounting software	CO8	U	3.4
9.	Position-specific scouting primarily considers: a) Requirements of a playing position b) Spectator numbers c) Ticket prices d) Stadium capacity	CO7	U	4.1
10.	Which component provides selected evidence of an athlete's performance? a) Video highlights reel b) Ticket receipt c) Attendance sheet d) Venue plan	CO7	U	4.2
			(10 × 1 = 10 Marks)

	Part B (Short Answer Questions) Answer any Five Questions (Marks 2 each)
11.	Define sports scouting and state its importance.	CO1	U	1.1
12.	Mention any two methods of talent identification.	CO2	K	1.4
13.	List any four physical attributes considered in talent identification.	CO3	K	2.2
14.	What is mental toughness? Explain its relevance to scouting	CO4	U	2.3

15.	What are intangibles in sports scouting? Give two examples.	CO5	U	2.4
16.	Mention any four obstacles that may affect athlete development.	CO6	K	3.3
17.	What is the role of data analytics in sports scouting?	CO8	U	3.4
			(5 × 2 = 10 Marks)

	Part C (Short Essay Questions) Answer any Three Question (Marks 5 each)
18.	Explain the major scouting techniques used in the evaluation of athletes.	CO1	U	1.2
19.	Explain the different profiles of talented athletes and their relevance to predicting athletic success.	CO2	An	2.1
20.	A scout identifies an athlete with excellent speed and strength but poor flexibility and coordination. Analyse the athlete's physical profile and suggest areas for development.	CO3	A	2.2
21.	Discuss the mental and emotional skills that should be considered when evaluating a talented athlete.	CO4	An	2.3
22.	Explain how technology and data analytics can improve the scouting process.	CO8	An	3.4
			(3 × 5 = 15 Marks)	